Financial Horizons Group announces strengthened leadership team

Kitchener, Ontario - February 1, 2019 . . . Financial Horizons Group Inc. announced a strengthened leadership team to execute on the organization's objectives. Nick Pszeniczny, President & CEO, Financial Horizons Group, outlined the new-look leadership team in a communication to FHG staff and advisors.

As part of the announcement, Nick Pszeniczny stated: "Financial Horizons Group will be the independent financial services company of choice for Canadian advisors. This is what we aspire to be – and everything we do will focus on earning their trust and confidence in order to see us this way. It's the realization of this vision – the absolute satisfaction of advisors – that drives us."

David Stewart has been named Chief Operating Officer and will lead FHG in elevating all aspects of its advisor experience. With David's guidance, Chris Valardo (Distribution), Mike Donati (Dealership), and Heidi MacDonald (Operations) will work closely together to make tangible improvements to the organization's offering.

FHG's three MGA regions will be led by three strong, insightful presidents across the country – Cathy Hiscott (Ontario & Atlantic Region), Paul Isaacson (Western Region), and James McMahon (Quebec Region).

Will Chang (General Counsel) and Marc Lantaigne (Finance & Strategy) will direct and develop the Legal/Compliance and Finance/Strategy teams, respectively. Together, with Nina Kavalinas (Compliance), these leaders will help advisors navigate the complexities of the financial services industry.

Christina Waite (Human Resources & Corporate Affairs) will ensure FHG communicates clearly and consistently in addition to her role as the organization's Human Resources leader. Christina will also lead FHG's philanthropic initiatives, which are set to be heightened in communities across Canada.

The organization's founder, John H. Hamilton, remains on the board and as a valued resource to the leadership team as Founder and Special Advisor.

"I'm confident in this team and this organization – and in all of us making a real difference to advisors and insurance partners in 2019," Nick Pszeniczny continued.

"We're going to be laser focused on the things necessary to earn your trust as the independent financial services company of choice."
